My dear Mirza

Your Telegram was not really a surprise to me as I thought it quite possible that His Highness would like the Sea-breezes of Madras to prolong his stay. I presume that His Highness visit is "in cog-nito" or are You going to let the Resident & H.E. the Governor know?

I would advise the Duke dine informally as
Mr. Cobbe is staying with Lord & Lady Portland, & the Daily Post announced last night that H.H.
had gone to Headley,
so this no secret
now.
There is no real
necessity to exchange visits, but merely to let them know you & Mrs Jerome
are [illegible] misunderstood

Jane ready to send down if H.H. would like but I presume he would be free & quiet

Mr. Cobbe is staying
with Mr Pearlands until Wednesday. He left here last night I
